Regional Job Fair Rapidly Approaches

Event will feature 25 employers with over 400 job openings.

Richland Center, WI - The Richland Center Job Fair, a regional recruiting event, is rapidly approaching and job seekers will have many opportunities from which to choose. Over 25 employment representatives will be on hand to answer questions about their company and their open positions. Open positions are both full and part-time, represent virtually all industry sectors, from Manufacturing to Retail, and require little to no skill as well as jobs requiring highly developed skills.

“The event will provide job seekers the opportunity to talk with area employers about potential job opportunities in the Richland Center region,” stated Anna Schramke, Business Services and Economic Development Coordinator for Southwest WI Workforce Development Board, one of the organizing forces behind the event. “Sometimes people are surprised that there are so many available jobs. The region is home to many growing businesses who need good people to fill the jobs they are creating. We hope this event will help connect those looking for a job with an employer who needs them.”

Employers scheduled to attend the Job Fair include: BrightStar Care, ContinuUs, Great Lakes Educational Loan Services, Gundersen Health System, Holtger Brothers (HBI), Lands' End, Meister Cheese, METCO, MPC, Inc., Plateco Inc, Primex Plastics Corp, QPS Employment Group, S&S Cycle, Inc., Schreiber Foods, Scot Industries, Skinner Transfer Corp, The Hanor Company of Wisconsin, LLC, The House on the Rock, Tractor Central LLC, Tradesmen International, Vernon County, Westby Coop Credit Union, Wisconsin Department of Corrections, Wisconsin Early Autism Project, and Wisconsin River Outings
